TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 27.

Persons leaving the city can have the Gazette mailed to any address, postage prepaid, for any length of time, at the rate of fifty cents per month.

To SUBSCRIBERS.—Subscribers will please bear in mind that the Gazette is not allowed to collect for the GAZETTE.

For this section fair weather, except rain near the coast, no change in temperature, northerly winds.

DISSATISFIED REPUBLICANS.—Pursuant to call, the republicans of the First ward, who are dissatisfied with the methods by which they were misrepresented at the Norfolk convention, met last night at the corner of Fairfax and Franklin streets to take action in the matter. Strother Gillerson, colored, presided and George A. Nowland acted as secretary. Mr. W. F. Graves, the address of the meeting, recounting at treatment the republicans had received at the hands of General Mahone and his city chairman, and submitted the following statement of the manner in which the recent ward meetings were held in this city, viz:

We, the republican voters of the First ward of the city of Alexandria, desire to make the following statement:

We have tried to carry out the late compromise in good faith. We have done everything that honorable men can do to give it a fair trial. Although our faith was small that General Mahone's chairmen would do the right thing by us, we were not disappointed when we found he was up to his old tricks. Everything was done with the most reckless disregard of the voters' rights and all party usage and precedent. Never has General Mahone in the city of Alexandria (for we take it that his chairmen would never resort to the illegal and dishonest acts without his concurrence and direction) been quite so disregarding of all decency and common honesty in his primaries as during the late compromise. His Mr. Dearborn called our meeting to be held at the corner of Duke and Union streets, and the time at 5 o'clock p. m. on the 19th. We met at the time and place designated to find that he had called his meeting privately at an earlier hour in a room in the Second ward. When the hour arrived for calling the meeting to order his meeting had met, elected their delegates and adjourned. We held our meeting, elected our delegates and adjourned in every way to Chairman Dearborn's call, and adjourned after passing resolutions condemnatory of General Mahone's plan of organization and his chairman, Mr. Charles Dearborn. We had one hundred and ten voters at our regular ward meeting. Never before has so many been so completely and so totally disregarded as has been done in the First ward of this city at the election of delegates to the State convention under the so called compromise.

The statement was received as expressing the sentiment of the voters of the ward.

Mr. Graves then offered the following: Resolved, 1st, That inasmuch as we attempted to be represented at the Norfolk convention and failed through no fault of our own, but only through the gross fraud and trickery of General Mahone's chairman and partisans, that we do not consider ourselves bound in any way by the action of that convention, and, further, that we will not support its nominees. All good republicans are requested to stay away from the polls on election day and give no aid and comfort to that common enemy of the republican party, General Mahone.

Resolved, 2d, That we cannot and will not condone the frauds by which we were and are cheated out of our rights as American citizens at every recurring election of delegates, and 3d, that we ask and demand that our present plan of organization be changed. We demand home rule in party affairs and nothing less will satisfy us.

The resolutions caused some discussion. J. Sales did not like staying away from the polls; it gave the democrats two votes to the republicans one; he rather thought of the two evils—Mahone and McKinney, he would vote against the latter, because he was a democrat. He moved to postpone action.

Mr. Nowland was opposed to a postponement, and moved the adoption of the resolution. He said the republican voters of the First ward had not been recognized by Mahone's managers and the polls was the right place to brand them. He read ex-Governor Cameron's recent utterances about General Mahone and his methods and said those were the sentiments of many of the republicans.

Mr. Graves spoke of how often the voters had been cheated by General Mahone, and his city chairman, and said he was tired of such treatment. He would not vote for Gen. Mahone for Governor. He did not want to vote the democratic ticket but would do so in preference to voting for Gen. Mahone. Mahone had to be beaten before the republican party in Virginia could succeed.

Several colored men present expressed their determination of not voting for General Mahone, but if necessary, would vote for anybody "to kill Mahone."

After various motions had been made and voted down the resolutions were adopted with but two dissenting votes.

David Middleton was elected a member of the ward committee in place of Augustus Ramey, deceased, although it was stated that such election was contrary to Gen. Mahone's plan of organization.

THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS.—The leaders of the two factions of the republican party of this city continue at odds. It is reported by Mr. L. W. Corbett's friends that he has received a letter inviting him to Petersburg on Friday to have a conference with General Mahone. The straight-tongued Gen. Mahone has invited Mr. Corbett to a conference, and say "the General doesn't confer with key cannon," and that "he regards the 'kickers' in Alexandria as he does those in the other parts of the State—with supreme indifference, if not contempt." One of Mr. Corbett's friends said to-day that Mr. Corbett had written, or would write, a letter to Mr. Frank Hunter, telling the latter that if he became the democratic candidate for the legislature, he, Mr. Corbett, would have to defeat him. On hearing this, it is reported that Mr. Dearborn, the republican city chairman, said that it cost the republicans more to elect Mr. Corbett to the legislature two years ago than was spent in any four other counties in the State, and that he has had his day. In the meantime more open in their revolt against General Mahone, and the disagreement between the leaders of the factions rather tends to increase the revolt.

Last night a number of Gen. Mahone's friends held an informal conference at the City Hotel. Besides those from this city, there were present several delegates to the Norfolk convention from the neighboring counties who were on their way home. A plan of campaign was discussed and a hearty laugh indulged in over the discomfiture of the "kickers."

GUNNERS FINED.—The police authorities of both this city and Fairfax have determined to break up unlawful gaming. Yesterday evening, as stated in the GAZETTE, Thos. Arlington, colored, was arrested by Officer Borden of that county for shooting birds in Pompano's marsh and was brought to this city. Later Officers Hayes and Nightingall arrested two young white men and one colored man for the same offense and brought them to the station house. They left collateral for their appearance at this morning they were taken before Justice Pulman at West End. Justice Pulman after hearing the case fined Arlington $10 and costs, $4, and confiscated his gun and gun, and fined the three others $4 and costs and confiscated their guns. As the gaming season opens on Monday there will probably be no more unlawful shooting abouts before that day.

PERSONAL.—Miss Jennie Cowling has returned to the city after a pleasant visit to friends in Winchester. Miss S. Annie Schofield has returned from a trip through Europe. Mrs. R. F. Lawler, of Norfolk, is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Edward Lawler, on Wilkes street. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Murray, of Memphis, are visiting relatives in this city. Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. B. B. Smith and Mrs. Morgan Davis have gone to Fauquier county to spend a few weeks.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild with four prisoners and one lodger at the station house.

The only case for trial at the Mayor's office this morning was that of a number of white and colored men arrested by officers Hayes and Nightingall, for the unlawful shooting of birds in Fairfax county, within the police jurisdiction of the city. They were turned over to the Fairfax county authorities.

MEDICINAL.

SSS

Swift's Specific entirely cured me of a severe case of blood poison which obstinately resisted and refused to be cured for over 25 years. The regular medical remedies of mercury and potash only added fuel to the flame. I suffered during most of this long time with ulcers, blotches and sores of the most offensive character, and was for a long time practically an invalid. In less than thirty days use of S. S. S. I was all cleared up and sound and well. This has been nearly a year ago, and no sign of any return of the old enemy.
